AUTO RAN WILD WHEN BRAKES FAILED TO HOLD

A brand new Buick touring car, the property of Walter Burdick, a traveling salesman of New London, was badly damaged Monday afternoon when it ran wild down the steep part of Fremont street across Huntington street in New London and crashed against a large elm tree. Mr. Burdick had left the car in front of his residence and both he and his wife were in the house and did not see the car when it started.

The car had been left on a slight grade and with the emergency brake set only a couple of notches so that the brake failed to hold. Starting slowly, but gathering momentum as the steeper portion of the hill was reached the car shot across Huntington street at considerable speed. The damage to the car will undoubtedly amount to between $500 to $800.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?
Why cutting and cauterizations fail?
Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?
Do you know that there is a harmless internal cause, readily discovered by Dr. Leenhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Lee & Osgood and druggists generally, that is eradicated?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for safety and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you.

TAFTVILLE

Donat Ducharme and Miss Annette Carrigan were united in marriage, Monday morning at 8 o'clock, by Rev. C. T. Lefebvre, in the Sacred Heart church. The couple was married by Arthur Thibault and Miss Leona Carrigan, a sister of the bride. The bride was dressed in white georgette and wore a veil to match. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and a boutonniere. The gifts were many and beautiful. The wedding couple left for a six weeks' tour of Canada. Mr. Ducharme was born in Canada, the son of Eugene and Milande Dehar Ducharme and is employed as a weaver at the local mill. The bride is the daughter of Louis and Onésime Bousquet Carrigan and was born in Canada.

NORWICH TOWN

The service at the Sheltering Arms Sunday afternoon was under the direction of the Federated church. Rev. R. Daniel Trick, the pastor, had charge of the services. Mrs. George A. Howard was at the piano. Miss Alice Rothwell accompanied with her violin. There were two duets, one by Miss Elinor Howard and Master Robert S. Trick, also one by Mr. and Mrs. Trick. H. S. Peckham offered the closing prayer.

Rev. Mr. Trick read for his scripture lesson from John 8: 25-50, and took for his theme, "The Sustaining Power of the Christian Life." He said in substance: "The Christian life is a life. It is not a dogma, not a creed, not a sacrament in the sense of word. It is a life that must be sustained, and sustained by Christ. Jesus said, 'I am the way, the truth and the life.' 'I am the bread of life.' 'I am the water of life.' Thus Christ is the elements for sustaining the life that is hid with Christ in God."

In discussing this theme let me remark, that this communion is: 1, the privilege of every child of God. This is true for the following reason. The ordinary hindrances to the development of life do not prevail here. The ordinary hindrances are the physical, the social, the religious and racial. Since men of all races, peoples of all faiths, representatives of all social conditions, and personalities of all physical forms and conditions are found within the confines of Christian faith. God is no respecter of person.

2. It is essential to the development of the Christian life. Christian character apart from Christ is a misnomer, as there could be no American citizenship without an America. Christian character is dependent upon the appropriation of Christ. For a Christian character is to result in a likeness to Christ. "Beloved now are we the sons of God. . . but when he shall appear we shall be like Him."

3. This communion is true worship. The wise men worshipped Christ before they gave gifts. If gifts were worship the greater gift would be the true worship. Sacrifice is worship by the sacrifices of God are broken and a contrite spirit. Worship is honoring Christ. We honor Christ by appropriating and revealing His personality. Worship is the expression of life. We express the life we worship.

The service was closed by singing the hymn, God Be With You Till We Meet Again.

The National League of Women Workers, to which the Norwich Girls' club belongs, will meet at Bryn Mawr, June 10 to 12. For nineteen years Miss Jean Hamilton has been general secretary of the league, and in that time she has seen the organization grow from a membership of 4,000 to 25,000.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PLAN SHAPING UP

The community service plan which will be put into operation in this city within the near future is beginning to take definite form. The acting chairman of the community service committee appointed recently by vote of the open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to take charge of this work under the direction of T. J. Parry, organizer of Community Service, Inc., has called a meeting for Wednesday evening of this week. The meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on Main street and will open at 7:30 o'clock. The main object of the meeting is to formulate plans for putting into operation the community service program. Mr. Parry and his assistant, Miss Maud S. Tomlin, will be present to answer questions and to offer suggestions.

The meeting is to be an open one and invitations have been extended to several prominent people of the city to attend as the committee feels the need of advice and suggestions. A number of people of the town have been making inquiries as to just what community service can do for Norwich. Those in charge of the movement here will be glad to answer questions and to offer suggestions.

For the city: Act as a non-sectarian, non-factional, non-political clearing house for plans and information, thus providing a medium through which all organizations may co-operate on public projects, preventing waste and duplication of effort. Promote and foster civic pride and patriotism through neighborhood organization, social and recreational centers and community gatherings. Establish a downtown rest room and recreation center. Advertise Norwich through travelers' aid and information service. Conduct educational campaign and assist in the promotion of projects for community betterment and general improvement.

For the church: Stimulate social activities by assigning workers skilled in social and recreational pastimes and train Sunday school teachers, club leaders and the like in the conduct of programs for social meetings. Assist the stranger to find the church of his choice. Develop friendly rivalry through athletic leagues, glee clubs, choruses and dramatic associations. Assist in organizing the musical talent of the church and train volunteer song leaders to lead community singing. For the home: Provide opportunities for healthful and proper diversions for younger members of the household, as well as for the grown-ups. Promote neighborliness. Turn neighborhood sanitation. Organize home clubs for social and educational purposes.

For the school: Organize interscholastic leagues in athletics, dramatics, singing. Teach the children recess-time games. Teach the teacher the art of recreation leadership.

For business: Direct strangers to the shops. Provide a rest room and parcel checking place for shoppers. Advise town and its business. Elevate morale of employees through community singing, athletic leagues, dramatic associations, glee clubs, etc. Advise the merchant through the enterprises engaged in by the employee.

For the child: Develop the mind by providing chances to give expression to latent talents. Provide healthful games in proper environment. Organize clubs for social, recreational and educational purposes.

For the stranger: Render hospitality through information and travelers' aid service. Help him to find a place in which to live. Give him an opportunity to make friends through neighborhood and other social gatherings. Hold citizenship classes to create an understanding of city state and national institutions. Assimilate him into community life through community singing, block parties, etc.

For everybody: Promote social clubs for leisure time. Provide noon hour and other "off-time" games, community singing, etc. Organize dramatic and athletic leagues, glee clubs and choruses. Find opportunities for the individual to serve his community. Discover and assign volunteer workers wanting to be of service to all organizations.

There you have it. If anyone has any questions or suggestions, it is hoped he will communicate with the community service committee, which can be reached at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

POETRY

SEDITION.
You cannot salt the eagle's tail,
Nor limit thought's dominion.
You cannot put ideas in jail:
You can't deport opinion.

If any cause be dress and lies,
Then drag it to the light;
Out in the sunshine evil dies,
But fawns on the night.

You cannot make a truth untrue
By dint of legal action.
You cannot prison human view,
You can't convict conviction.

For though by thumbscrew and by rack,
By exile and by prison,
Truth has been crushed and palled in
Yet truth has always risen.

You cannot quell a vicious thought
Except that thought be free.
Gag it, and you will find it taught
On every land and sea.

Truth asks no favor for her blade
Upon the field with error.
Nor are her converts ever made
By threat of force and terror.

You cannot salt the eagle's tail,
Nor limit thought's dominion.
You cannot put ideas in jail,
You can't deport opinion.

—Edmund Vance Cooke, in Ottawa Citizen.

THE YEARS

When I was young and twenty,
I'd run many a mile,
And when I came to thirty
I'd sit and rest a while.

And now that I am thirty-five
I am the sleepiest man alive.
But maybe when I'm forty
I'll shake my legs again.

And walk from then till fifty
With young and striding men,
And billiard go in sixty years
To see how yet the counties fare.

When I am old and eighty,
All treasuries will be done,
Of love and silly bitterness
And I shall watch the sun

Go out, and little heed the fear
That smote upon me in my prime,
—John Drinkwater, in the London Sphere.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

He wasn't looking for it, but he found it. When he found it he picked it up and looked for it. Because he couldn't find it he put it down and walked with it.

What was it?
"Why—a thorn in his foot—Boys' Life."

"Mrs. Grip says nothing, not even the fashion, would induce her to wear these ridiculous pants."

"I don't see why not. She doesn't hesitate about wearing the breeches."—Baltimore American.

"Fred, do you remember where you were in 1910?" asked the bride of a few months.

"Why, no, dear. I don't remember exactly," replied the young husband. "Why do you ask?"

"Why I was reading today in the paper that it is said that in 1910 one person in every 500 in this country was in prison."—London Ideas.

"Are you saving anything for a rainy day?"

"Not much in actual money," replied Cactus Joe. "But I've got a pack of cards and a set of poker chips put by."—Washington Star.

"The wild goose is neither graceful nor beautiful."
